CONTRACT BOND REQUIREMENT

State legislation effective July 9, 1925, instructed all commissions making contracts for public work of any kind to be performed for the State to require every contractor for such work to execute a bond to the State with good and sufficient sureties.

From and after July 9, 1925, all bonds covering contracts for the construction of state highways accepted by this Commission shall be in the form and manner required by Section 107.170, RSMo, as revised. The form of contract bond to be accepted on contracts covering said projects shall be as provided in the contract document.
