There's Nothing SMALL about Business!

This series is designed to introduce you to topics specific to small businesses. We will review and ignite new ideas in a facilitated, comfortable online forum, with opportunities to ask questions and interact with others.

Together, We Can Do This!

Throughout 2025, Bellewether will bring you a variety of topics specifically designed for small businesses and provide ongoing supportive services as you navigate the details of running your business.

Join our first two sessions IN JANUARY as we explore Human Resources Management!

Facilitated by Robin Wheeler Sanders, MBA, these back-to-back sessions create a new perspective on the ends and outs of Human Resources.

Robin brings 32 years of HR experience to the table, spanning all aspects of HR, from strategy and culture, to recruitment, compensation and benefits.

Robin has worked in government, healthcare and private industry sectors and has lead HR initiatives that complement an organization's ability to attract and retain employees.
